

Please consider when ruling on what information can be broadcast on satellite radio that I use satellite radio in my RV. It is very helpful and provides an extra measure of safety to receive weather and traffic information on satellite radio. When I know that I receive this information through satellite radio then I do not have to search for local stations when traveling in areas unknown to me.